

Fifty States Vodka Releases Limited Edition Pride Bottle

BOCA RATON, Fla. – June 2021, Founders of Fifty States Vodka, The Liberati Family announced this month the release of limited time Pride bottles.

Fifty States Vodka, a premium blend vodka company made for Americans, is happy to announce the release of the exclusive, limited edition Pride bottle in celebration of June's LGBTQ Pride month. All of our vodka is distilled 6 times for a smooth, crisp sip and is locally produced and manufactured in the United States.

“We are proud supporters of the LGBTQ community and our rainbow bottle is intended to spread the message of acceptance, love and unity. As a part of our Pride campaign, we are designating an LGBTQ organization to give back to. “

The limited edition Pride bottles will also be available in mini size! You can purchase the Pride bottles on our website: <https://fiftystatesvodka.com> and in select retail stores.

We believe love is love, but vodka isn't just vodka.
